

Christian Study Sample + Walk Through

WELCOME: The first section in each Teacher Guide helps you with planning your homeschool year. The welcome tells you what's included: planning calendar, lesson plans, student worksheets, and student records. It shows you how to have a peaceful morning schedule with just 3 lessons per day: one family lesson in Christian Study, one family lesson in Enrichment Study, and one lesson per grade in Individual Study for a complete curriculum.

HOW TO USE: The next page in each Teacher Guide shows you how simple it is to use. Simply do one lesson per day to complete the course in one year. This is a four day per week schedule, so you have a day for outings, groups, library trip, field trip or anything you want. This page also includes your weekly schedule and reminds you to access the free booklist at oldfashionededucation.org.

rade, and record in the student records. That's it!

WEEKLY SCHEDULE

LESSON PLANS: The lesson plans are next. Each two-page spread includes a week of lessons so you can see your week-at-a-glance. They are also organized in monthly sections, so you can easily flip through the Teacher Guide and find your spot. Start each lesson with the "You Will Need" booklist, then do the no-prep family together lesson with gradelevel assignments. Helpful teaching tips, timeline reminders, and room for your notes are in margins.

TEACHER HELPS: The last section includes worksheets, tests, answer key, and a place for records. All Teacher Guides include worksheets, and while they vary from book-to-book, the objective is the same, to gain long term memory! In addition to the worksheets, give each student a notebook for copying in the recitations. Choose either the Student Copybook for all 5 years or a composition notebook.
